I. Welcome and Introductions

Patricia Nickols convened the meeting at 1:40 p. m. She asked for self introductions and thanked everyone for being there.

II. Announcements

Ms. Nickols gave brief remarks regarding the 2006 U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) Super NoFA. On April 27, 2006 CAPSBC received 13 proposals. There were 9 renewal proposals and 4 new proposals. On May 8, 2006, the Review Panel met to rate and rank proposals. The Review Panel considered each proposal and agreed to asked agencies to adjust their budgets for three years instead of one year. Ms. Nickols mentioned that on May 15, 2006 the Homeless Coalition Policy Council will meet to approve the recommendations of the 2006 Review Panel. She noted that there was still approximately $4 million left on the table for San Bernardino County.

III. Refine Implementation Plans for Goal 1-6

Christya Vines engaged the Task Force in a group exercise in order to confirm the concept of completing the implementation plans for each of the committee’s accomplishment. The subcommittees worked together to refine their previous plans with the assistance of the facilitator.

The subcommittees came back together as a large group and reviewed several of the implementations plans to solicit their feedback. The group agreed to continue working on refining the implementations plans during the June meeting.
